建立基督的身體

Building up the Body of Christ

印城華人教會
Chinese Community Church of Indianapolis

Chinese Community Church of Indianapolis (CCCI) in Carmel, Indiana is looking for a full time children's pastor, job descriptions and qualifications as attached.

History

A group of Chinese Christians led by the Holy Spirit started a Bible study fellowship in Indianapolis in 1968. The group met at the North Minister Presbyterian Church for worship services. This congregation was transformed into the Chinese Community Church of Indianapolis (CCCI) in November 1973. In the fall of 1974, CCCI moved to the Meridian Street Methodist Church sanctuary for worship services until August 1982 when the church settled at the location on Broadway Avenue. Since late 1980s, CCCI had experienced a significant growth and were in need of larger facilities. By God's grace, the church purchased and moved into the present location at 3405 E. 116th Street of Carmel in June 1999. The church organization consists of administration, finance, education, worship, fellowship, mission and caring ministry. The congregation elects elders and deacons to oversee various responsibilities within the church as well as to guide brothers & sisters in serving the Lord together.

Mission Statement

We are the Body of Christ, given the Great Commandment (Mt.12:30-31) and the Great Commission (Mt.28:19-20) by the Lord Jesus Christ. God revealed The Holy Bible to be the true foundation of our belief. Our purpose is to expand God's Kingdom and give witness of God's glory in these five aspects: Worship, Ministry, Fellowship, Discipleship, and Evangelism. Based on the above statement, the Chinese Community Church of Indianapolis devotes its ministries mainly to the Chinese both Overseas and American-born in accordance with God-given cultural characteristics and regional location.

Do you have a calling on your life to minister to children? Are you willing to let God send you where HE needs you? Are you up for a challenge? If you are called and willing to serve with us together for His glory, please email your resume or contact us. You can also go to our website www.indychinesechurch.org for more information about us.

Sincerely,

Jay Tang
