

Attachment #3
Guidelines for Screening All Missionaries and New Mission projects
Chinese Community Church of Indianapolis

Effective November, 2016

Purpose of this guideline:

1. These guidelines are for all missionary applicants and new mission projects in addition to our current mission policy
2. These guidelines are for all applicants with priority given to CCCI members.

When a CCCI member receives an inquiry for CCCI mission support or fund raising or partnership, please consider to use following guidelines for screening or evaluation:

- A. The applicant should have a current CCCI member who will an advocate for him/her or for the project.
- B. The advocate should know the applicant well (be prepared to confirm that the applicant is a strong believer, mission minded, mature Christian, biblical, spiritual and emotional healthy Christian). The advocate for a missions project should be able to confirm that the nature of project is aligned with CCCI's vision and mission, faith and the mission guideline/priorities.
- C. The applicant is a member of a Christian mission agency/organization, or in process of joining one within one year. The project is from a Christian mission agency/organization(meet the Mission Support Policy 1. Type of Organizations).
- D. The advocate has been a prayer and/or financial partner of the applicant or project for at least six months.
- E. The advocate will have the following responsibilities:
  - 1) Be willing to present this applicant or project to church's mission committee (MC) in writing
  - 2) Be the contact person for the missionary or project until approval and then a MC member will be the contact person.
- G. New applications should be submitted by September 30th in order to be considered for the next year's budget.
- H. Existing missionaries should report when CCCI's financial support commitment is complete in order to request an extension of support. This request should be made by September 30th in order to be considered for the next budget year.

When the above conditions are met, the advocate should contact the MC immediately for this potential applicant or project. From this point, MC will make a decision to accept or reject and will contact the applicant or representative of the project. The CCCI advocate will be informed of the screening result.

The last updated is on 11/18/2016.